

I work for the Imperial War Museum Sound Archive as one of the team of freelancers who record interviews with veterans and civilians involved in military conflicts.

The team I work for collects memories from 20th century conflicts, under the leadership of Richard McDonough

IWM, Cold War & Late C 20th Conflict Team, Lambeth Road, London SE1 6HZ ; telephone 0207.416.5362 ; email rmcdonough@iwm.org.uk) and I am based in the north west of England.

We are just beginning a new project in anticipation of the 40th anniversary of the Falklands conflict and are particularly looking to collect and record memories of training, normal day-to-day activities, the build-up to the conflict and of course events during and after the conflict itself. I wondered if you might know of anyone in your association who would be interested in being interviewed.

I am happy to answer any questions about how the process works !

Thank you
Fiona
